

Management Wisdom 1

"To manage is to forecast and plan, to organize, to command, to coordinate and to control."

Henri Fayol (1841-1925), French industrialist and management thinker.

"Everybody has talent.

It is just a matter of moving around until you have discovered what it is."

George Lukas

"Management is more art than science.

No one can say with certainty which decisions will bring the most profit, anymore than they can create instructions over how to sculpt a masterpiece.

You just have to feel it as it goes."

"Apply yourself.

Get all the education you can, but then, by God, do something.

Don't just stand there, make it happen."

Lee Iacoca

"A man will fight harder for his interests than his rights."

Napoleon

"Management means, in the last analysis, the substitution of thought for brawn and muscle, of knowledge for folklore and superstition, and of cooperation for force."

Peter Drucker, originator of concept of management

"Good management consists in showing average people how to do the work of superior people."

John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937), mega industrialist

"Business is the art of extracting money from another man's pocket without resorting to violence."

Max Amsterdam

"IN GREAT ATTEMPTS, It is GLORIOUS even to FAIL."

anonym

"The key, essential element in all business management is emotional attitude. The rest is mechanics."

Harold Geneen (1910-1997), CEO of early global multinational corporations
